

LIVING IN ONE NEIGHBORHOOD BASH

August 29, 2017

6:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m.

Join community leaders during the Living in One Neighborhood (LION) Bash to learn more about the State College community and everything it offers. This is an educational opportunity to learn about the current community services and ordinances. It's your chance to become an informed citizen!

During the LION Bash there will be multiple interactive booths managed by community members, local organizations and businesses. Stop by these engagement stations to learn more about the work these vendors are doing in the community. By visiting these stations you have a chance to win great prizes including an iPad and gift cards to local businesses.

There will be food at the event from prominent establishments like Rita's Italian Ice, ElGringo Taco Truck and Ye Olde College Dinner. If that doesn't strike your fancy, visit one of the many great eating establishments in downtown State College. There will be live entertainment at the event featuring: Student performers from PSU, The Adorabulls, Miss Melanie and the Valley Rats and Velveeta.

Join your friends and family at LION Bash to discover the various resources the State College community offers to improve your quality of life!
